

FREE Library Computer Classes for Older Adults to access reliable health information on the Internet

An NIH-funded research study

New sessions beginning March 19, 2013
Classes are forming!! Sign up today!!

All computer classes are Free, but seats may be limited
To register, please call 512-471-9407

Purpose: To help older adults (age 60+) learn to use the internet to access reliable health information.

Instructional activities: Computer classes designed for older adults at all skill levels.

Fees: FREE

Funding: The Electronic Health Information for Lifelong Learners (eHill) research project is funded with federal funds from the National Institute of Health.

Research activities: The computer classes are part of the eHill research project. As such, we ask all participants to complete questionnaires before and after the class.

People & Organizations: Dr. Bo Xie and graduate students in the School of Nursing and School of Information at the University of Texas at Austin and the Little Walnut Creek Branch of the Austin Public Library.

10 a.m. - 12 p.m., on Mondays & Wednesdays or Tuesdays & Thursdays or
1 p.m. - 3 p.m. on Mondays & Wednesdays
Each class is two days a week for four weeks.

Little Walnut Creek Branch
835 W. Rundberg Ln. | (512) 974-9860

AUSTIN PUBLIC
LIBRARY library.austintexas.gov

The City of Austin is committed to compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Reasonable modifications will be provided upon request. For assistance please call (512) 974-7400 or contact the branch manager.

