

ART FROM THE STREETS EXHIBIT

The Austin Public Library and Art From the Streets present an exhibit featuring work created by artists who are homeless.
March 1 through March 31

CLOSING RECEPTION

Saturday, March 30, 2 - 4 p.m.

Featuring Layton Blaylock's feature-length documentary about Art From the Street

Art From the Streets is a program to promote the creation and exhibition of artwork by the homeless.

HAMPTON BRANCH at OAK HILL
5125 CONVICT HILL RD. | (512) 974-9900

The exhibit and reception are free and open to the public.

Nayo (Bernardo Martinez)

Nayo is a true Austin native, which is rare these days. He watched Austin grow from a very small city, but he also lived in California, and travelled with a circus for an adventure in his younger days. His art is inspired by Aztec sculpture, and his love of color.

AUSTIN PUBLIC LIBRARY

library.austintexas.gov

The City of Austin is committed to compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Reasonable modifications will be provided upon request. For assistance please call (512) 974-7400 or contact the branch manager.

