[C] COMMUNITY CINEMA

ENGAGING COMMUNITIES THROUGH FILM

Community Cinema is a free monthly screening series featuring films from the Independent Lens series. After the screening, lively discussions bring citizens and organizations together to encourage dialogue and action around important and timely social issues.

Community Cinema provides a chance to explore the world of the acclaimed PBS series Independent Lens outside your living room, before the episode airs. Independent Lens takes you on a journey to unexpected places to meet ordinary people living extraordinary lives.

APRIL 2

THE ISLAND PRESIDENT

by Jon Shenk, Bonni Cohen, and Richard Berge

After bringing democracy to his country, President Mohaned Nasheed of the Maldives, the lowest-lying country in the world, takes up the fight to keep his homeland from disappearing under the sea.

MAY 7

THE REVOLUTIONARY OPTIMISTS

by Maren Grainger-Monsen and Nicole Newnham

In the poorest neighborhoods of Calcutta, a lawyer turned social entrepreneur is empowering young girls and boys to take an active role in transforming their own lives. Through arts programs and hands-on activities like mapping their communities, these young girls and boys have brought clean drinking water to and improved sanitation in their slums.

LOVE FREE OR DIE

by Macky Alston

Faith, love, marriage, homosexuality, and the Episcopal Church collide in the first openly gay Bishop, Gene Robinson of New Hampshire.
