

RANDOM ACTS OF

HARPING

SATURDAY, JUNE 21 FROM 12:30 TO 2 PM - CONCERT
CONCERT REPEATED FROM 3:30-5 PM

Each year harpists all over the world freely share their beautiful harp music with the public in an event called Random Acts of Harping. Join harp enthusiasts David Melanson, Cindy Schaufenbuel and members of the Hill Country Harp Ensemble as they perform two harp concerts at Recycled Reads, the Austin Public Library's used book store.

SUNDAY, JUNE 22 AT 1 PM

David, Cindy and members of the Hill Country Harp Ensemble will lead an interactive discussion about the harp. Recycled Reads will have a harp "petting zoo" set up for participants to touch and strum. Harpists from the area are encouraged to bring their instruments for an informal open mic.

The event is family friendly, free and open to the public.
