The purpose of the Austin History Center is to provide customers with information about the history and current events of Austin and Travis County by collecting, organizing, and preserving research materials and assisting in their use.

INTRODUCTION

The collections of the Austin History Center contain valuable materials about Austin's Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities, although there is much that remains to be documented. The materials in the resource guide are arranged by collection unit of the Austin History Center. Within each collection unit, items are arranged in shelf-list order.

This is the most recent edition of the Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander Resource Guide and there are still significant gaps remaining. The final section, "Under-documented Areas of Interest," contains a listing of topics and people about which additional material is still needed at the Austin History Center. Communities and individuals who own records and stories relating to the Under-documented Area of Interest are encouraged to contact the Austin History Center.

GENERAL COLLECTION

General Collection contains books, pamphlets, and local government reports. Titles are arranged by call number. Yearbooks are listed separately at the end of the list.

This list is by no means an exhaustive list of every title held by the Austin History Center that relates to Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander in Austin--that can be accomplished by a keyword search in the Austin Public Library online catalog. This list is an attempt to identify General Collection items that provide a historical perspective or address Asian Americans.

MAP COLLECTION

The Map Collection contains items that illustrate the boundaries and features of Austin and Travis County and trace changes in the growth of the area. There are no maps relevant specifically to the Austin Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander Community in our current holdings.

PERIODICALS

Periodicals Collection includes newspapers, magazines, and newsletters published in or about Austin and Travis County. The collection is arranged alphabetically by title. Titles can be found by looking in the Periodical Index, located in the Reading Room. Date spans are listed to give the researcher an idea of what is available but this does not mean that the entire run of a periodical for that date span is necessarily available.

The Austin History Center has on microfilm a complete run of the Austin American-Statesman (AAS) since its founding in 1871. Refer to the following guide for more information about the AAS and how to access it: Austin American Statesman Resource Guide.
